II. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

As a resident of university housing, you are under the jurisdiction of the department and the guidelines published in the Student Disciplinary Regulations. Sanctions imposed by a Residence staff, the All-Residence Judiciary, or the Office of Judicial Affairs are binding. If you are found responsible for violations of the rules and regulations of the department set forth in the Terms and Conditions document, this Policy Handbook, or the Student Disciplinary Regulations, you may receive a disciplinary sanction resulting from a judicial hearing, including possible termination of your room and board contract and/or suspension or expulsion from the university.

A. Sanctions

1. The following sanctions may be imposed in all minor cases
 - a. Warning: A written notice indicating that a minor violation occurred and a more severe sanction will occur if the behavior does not change.
 - b. Disciplinary Reprimand: A written rebuke telling the student that his/her conduct is in violation of Residence rules and regulations.
 - c. Probation: A more severe sanction than a disciplinary reprimand. Probation is a period of review during which the student or student organization must demonstrate the ability to comply with Residence rules, regulations, and other requirements stipulated for the probation period.
 - d. Education: A requirement to participate in some project, class or other activity that is relevant to the nature of the offense and appropriate for the violation.
 - e. Restitution: A requirement to pay the cost of cleaning, repair and/or replacement of property damage incurred during conduct violation, to another student or Department of Residence.
 - f. Deferred Removal: A more severe sanction than Probation. Deferred removal is a period of review during which the occurrence of another violation will result in cancellation of the student's residence contract.
 - g. Termination of Housing Contract: A student may be removed from a residence hall or apartment. The student's access to specific living or dining areas may be restricted as part of the sanction.
2. If you receive a disciplinary sanction of removal from on-campus housing, you must leave within the time frame stated in the judicial sanction letter following formal acceptance of that decision by the department. If you appeal the decision, you may be reassigned to another living space on campus, pending the outcome of the appeal. Your original space will not be reassigned until the completion of the appeal process.
3. Under special circumstances, in order to provide for the safety and well-being of students and/or others, an administrative emergency removal and restriction from university owned residence hall and on-campus apartment facilities may be implemented as an interim step before a judicial hearing takes place. This removal will remain in effect until the case has been adjudicated. In a case such as this, referral will be made to the Office of Judicial Affairs. The Office of Judicial Affairs will adjudicate the case in a timely manner. You may contact the Office of Judicial Affairs if you have questions about the process.
4. If your room and board contract is terminated due to judicial action, your prepayment will be forfeited; you will be charged 80 percent of the remaining value of the room and board contract (less Dining Dollar$, which cannot be cancelled) and the daily rate until you officially check out. Charges for damages, cleaning, and improper check out may be imposed.
