

Summer 2010 Continuing Resident
Contract Extension and Preference Form

CONTINUING residents are ISU students who lived on-campus spring 2010 (or were on ISU-approved waiver). Summer 2010 enrollment is not required, but to be eligible for Continuing Resident rates, you must contract to live on-campus for the ENTIRE summer. NEW residents should submit a Summer 2010 New Resident Housing and Dining Contract (<http://housing.iastate.edu/forms/>). The Terms and Conditions for the 2009-2010 Housing and Dining Contract also cover summer 2010.

 Fall 2010 Assignment: Building / Hall _____ Apt. / Room # _____

Assignment Priorities - Our goal is to have 12 month students move as few times as possible during the summer. As such, our priority for assignments is as follows:

- If your fall 2010 assignment is available for summer 2010, you will move to that assignment for the summer.
- If your fall 2010 assignment is not available for summer 2010, or you do not have a fall 2010 assignment, you will stay in your spring 2010 assignment if it is available.
- If neither your fall 2010 nor your spring 2010 assignment is available, we will use the Assignment Preferences you list on this form to make an assignment for you.

Assignment Preferences - For more information, visit <http://housing.iastate.edu/contracts/summer.html>.

- Please rank your top three options from 1 – 3, with 1 being your first choice. You may rank more, but you must rank at least three.
- Single and Super Single rooms are offered on a space available basis only. Having a single or super single for spring or fall does not guarantee same for summer. Also, having a single or super single for summer, does not guarantee same for fall. In super singles, extra furniture will not be removed.
- Rates listed below are full-summer Continuing Student rates. A full-summer contract is required to receive these discounted rates.
